90th Anniversary Countdown – October 1, 2020

• Legendary French Chef Auguste Escoffier led culinary operations for the hotel's 1930 opening. Our Escoffier Suite pays tribute to him.

• During the Big Band era of the 1940s and 50s, The Pierre's storied Cotillion Room featured some of the best supper club entertainment, including condensed versions of musicals such as Anything Goes and the Merry Widow. This tradition continues today in Two E Lounge with an acclaimed cabaret series, Broadway At The Pierre.

• Fashion has a long love affair with The Pierre. Previous guests include Yves St Laurent, Coco Chanel, Karl Lagerfeld and Valentino (pictured with Barbra Streisand, 1970), who all called the hotel their home.

• Audrey Hepburn celebrated her 1954 Best Actress Oscar for Roman Holiday in a special ceremony at the hotel.

• The Pierre's Cotillion Room provided the backdrop for Al Pacino's iconic tango scene from 1992's Scent of A Woman.

• Elizabeth Taylor was one of The Pierre's first private residents. The screen legend's famed 1960 "Green Goddess" Rolls Royce Silver Cloud II convertible was delivered to her and then-husband Eddie Fisher when they resided at the hotel, with the color customized to match her wedding dress. The car is expected to fetch a record at auction on August 6, 2019.
