

NEWS BRIEFS

Roger Vivier, Farfetch, Ferrari and Mandarin Oriental – Live news

November 24, 2015

Jeanne Damas for Roger Vivier's fall/winter 2015 campaign

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news updates from Nov. 23:

Mandarin Oriental taps Mayo Clinic expertise for wellness clinics

Mandarin Oriental Bodrum in Turkey is helping its guests lead a more holistic lifestyle with the introduction of the Mayo Clinic Healthy Living Program.

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Click here to read the entire article

Farfetch eases holiday purchases with shoppable window displays

Fashion ecommerce platform Farfetch is making holiday shopping accessible 24/7 with shoppable window displays at more than 100 of its boutiques around the world.

Click here to read the entire article

Ferrari moves further toward independence from Fiat Chrysler

After launching an initial public offering in New York this fall, Italian automaker Ferrari has filed an application to trade in Milan as well.

Click here to read the entire article

Tod's acquires Roger Vivier for \$440M

Italian luxury group Tod's is ensuring that the Roger Vivier brand remains within its company by purchasing the label from its largest shareholder, Tod's CEO Diego Della Valle and his family.

Click here to read the entire article