

NEWS BRIEFS

Marc Jacobs, Mandarin Oriental, Condé Nast Brides and Rolls-Royce – Live news

January 11, 2016

Marc Jacobs promotional image

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from Jan. 8:

Marc Jacobs restructures retail footprint in Paris

Sign up now

Luxury Daily

U.S. fashion label Marc Jacobs is reconfiguring its Parisian retail strategy with a new storefront on Rue Saint-Honoré.

Click here to read the entire article

Mandarin Oriental secures Boston position via acquisition

Mandarin Oriental International has invested $140 million in the Boylston Street property that houses the Mandarin Oriental, Boston hotel.

Click here to read the entire article

Condé Nast Brides offers up expert wedding advice for \$12.5K

Condé Nast bridal publication Brides is recruiting its editors to assist brides-to-be in the planning process.

Click here to read the entire article

Rolls-Royce perfects the “art of arrival” during London Collections Men

British automaker Rolls-Royce Motor Cars is providing a fleet of chauffeured vehicles to transport VIP and celebrities to the Richard James of Savile Row presentation during London Collection Mens.

Click here to read the entire article

Harrods encourages imaginative play via Papinee partnership

British department store Harrods is giving the gift of imagination to children by featuring the toy-art brand Papinee in its Toy Kingdom.

Click here to read the entire article

© Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.