

NEWS BRIEFS

Burberry, David Bowie, Sotheby's and Savoir – Live news

January 12, 2016

Burberry menswear show finale

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from Jan. 11:

Savoir gives back with design for man's best friend

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

British bedmaker Savoir is ensuring that its customers' pooches also get a restful night's sleep with a new dog bed design.

Click here to read the entire article on Luxury Daily

Luxury brands honor memory of David Bowie

After news of musician David Bowie's death broke, luxury brands found their own ways to pay tribute to the late performer.

Click here to read the entire article on Luxury Daily

Sotheby's underpins client-first culture through art advisory acquisition

Auction house Sotheby's is bolstering the talent at the top of its organization through the acquisition of art advisory firm Art Agency Partners.

Click here to read the entire article on Luxury Daily

Burberry launches on Apple TV with menswear show live-stream

British fashion label Burberry has launched an application for the Apple TV platform, the latest in a series of digital partnerships with the tech giant.

Click here to read the entire article on Luxury Daily