

NEWS BRIEFS

Creative directors, DVF, Krug and Belstaff – Live news

February 2, 2016

DVF's spring/summer 2016 ad campaign

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from Feb. 1:

Krug pairs vintages with vegetables in limited engagement experience

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

LVMH-owned Krug is hosting a multi-sensory tasting event to better acquaint consumers with its Champagnes.

Click here to read the entire article

DVF inspires individuality, equal opportunity with help from model mogul

U.S. fashion label Diane von Furstenberg is prompting women to be themselves in an uplifting spring/summer 2016 campaign.

Click here to read the entire article

Bentley increases bespoke potential through additional Flying Spur features

British automaker Bentley's in-house coach building division Mulliner is rolling out a new range of possibilities for consumers to personalize their bespoke Flying Spur sedans.

Click here to read the entire article

Berluti, Brioni latest luxury houses to lose creative directors

Menswear labels Berluti and Brioni are joining the list of brands searching for new talent as their creative directors end their tenures.

Click here to read the entire article

Belstaff reinforces heritage with move back to Britain

British apparel label Belstaff is relocating its trademark and finance function to the United Kingdom from Switzerland, representing another step in the brand's return to its home country.

Click here to read the entire article

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.