

NEWS BRIEFS

Cline, British Vogue, Floris London and St. Regis – Live news

February 5, 2016

Celine spring/summer 2015 campaign image

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from Feb. 4:

Phoebe Philo rumored leaving Cline

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Cline is reportedly the latest house to part with its head designer, potentially adding to the game of hypothetical musical chairs happening within the fashion industry as insiders try to determine players' next moves.

Click here to read the entire article

British Vogue boasts record-breaking March issue

British Vogue's latest issue is the biggest March edition in the publication's 100-year history, with 27 more advertising pages than the previous year.

Click here to read the entire article

Floris London expresses personal attachment to scent with customization

Bespoke perfumery Floris London is enabling consumers to get a fragrance all their own with a personalization initiative.

Click here to read the entire article

Starwood unveils plans for St. Regis mixed-use property in Jakarta

Starwood Hotels & Resorts is continuing its accelerated growth in Asia with the upcoming opening of a St. Regis property in Jakarta, Indonesia.

Click here to read the entire article
