

NEWS BRIEFS

Neiman Marcus, Veuve Clicquot, Bergdorf Goodman and Hugo Boss – Live news

February 19, 2016

Veuve Clicquot Carnaval

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from Feb. 18:

Neiman Marcus focuses on core pillars to enter Long Island market

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Department store chain Neiman Marcus is introducing its philosophy of fashion, service, technology, architecture and art to the affluent market of Long Island, NY.

Click here to read the entire article

Veuve Clicquot aligns Champagne, Carnaval at branded event

LVMH-owned Champagne brand Veuve Clicquot is capturing the spirit and excitement of Carnaval for revelers in Miami.

Click here to read the entire article

Luisa Via Roma works to protect collective femininity via one-off artworks

Italian retailer Luisa Via Roma is sending messages of support via bottle to raise international awareness for women subjected to violence in Mexico.

Click here to read the entire article

Lexus salutes future innovators during Milan Design Week

Toyota Corp.'s Lexus is inviting attendees of Milan Design Week April 12-17 to experience a world filled with anticipation.

Click here to read the entire article

Michael Kors, Altazarra look to Bergdorf as runway retail outlet

New York-based department store Bergdorf Goodman is capitalizing on consumers' desire for instant gratification with its "Right from the Runway" events series.

Click here to read the entire article

Hugo Boss under fire for unsavory labor conditions at Turkish garment factory

Global consumer watchdog SumOfUs has drafted a petition calling out German fashion label Hugo Boss for unethical labor practices in Turkey.

Click here to read the entire article

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.