

NEWS BRIEFS

Hugo Boss, Fendi, By Killian and Raymond Weil – Live news

February 26, 2016

Fendinumi

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news updates from Feb. 25:

Fendi invites "celebrity guests" to document runway show

Italian fashion label Fendi has created new brand faces in the form of mascots with big personalities.

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Click here to read the entire article

Raymond Weil marks 40 years with music streaming service

Swiss watchmaker Raymond Weil is teaming with Universal Music Group to launch a bespoke digital music service, playing off its heritage of supporting the art form.

Click here to read the entire article

Hugo Boss CEO exits following company's profit warning

Hugo Boss' CEO is stepping down, ending his eight-year tenure amid the German fashion label's dimmed profit outlook.

Click here to read the entire article

By Kilian joins Estée Lauder Companies to grow business

The Estée Lauder Companies is adding to its fragrance portfolio with the acquisition of By Kilian.

Click here to read the entire article