

NEWS BRIEFS

Oscar de la Renta, The Plaza, Nordstrom and Ferragamo – Live news

March 25, 2016

Image from #FerragamoHollywood campaign

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from March 24:

Oscar de la Renta's career, influence remembered at retrospective

U.S. fashion designer Oscar de la Renta is the subject of a new retrospective exhibit that traces his career from his formative years to becoming one of the most revered talents of the 20th and 21st centuries.

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Click here to read the entire article

The Plaza Hotel is back on sale

The Fairmont-managed Plaza Hotel will soon have new owners after heading to the auction block next month.

Click here to read the entire article

Nordstrom furthers technology focus with new hire

Department store chain Nordstrom has hired Kumar Srinivasan to join the retailer as chief technology officer to further its innovations in customer service.

Click here to read the entire article

Versace cautiously optimistic for 2016 after strong 2015

Italian fashion house Gianni Versace has reported strong 2015 results, with revenues for the year growing by 17.5 percent to $709.5 million.

Click here to read the entire article

Massimiliano Giornetti exits Ferragamo after 16-year tenure

Italian footwear label Salvatore Ferragamo is the latest brand to lose its creative director.

Click here to read the entire article