

NEWS BRIEFS

Saks, Maserati, Marc Jacobs and Prada – Live news

April 11, 2016

Marc Jacobs eyewear, spring 2016

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from April 8:

Saks to close Dubai department store after 10-year stint

U.S. department store chain Saks Fifth Avenue has decided to shutter its location in Dubai, United Arab Emirates after nearly a decade.

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Click here to read the entire article

Ritz-Carlton takes gourmands on market visit to prepare hand-selected lunch

The Ritz-Carlton, Cleveland has debuted an exclusive Fresh Market package to explore the city's culinary attractions.

Click here to read the entire article

Maserati personalizes purchase process via Chase finance solution

Italian automaker Maserati and banker JP Morgan Chase have partnered to create a new auto finance agreement to offer potential buyers customized financial solutions.

Click here to read the entire article

Marc Jacobs casts Screaming Queens for UGC eyewear effort

U.S. fashion brand Marc Jacobs is showcasing consumers' expressions for its spring 2016 eyewear collection.

Click here to read the entire article

Prada nets 2015 growth in Japan, as China continues to cool

Italian fashion house Prada saw a 26.6 percent drop in profits in the 12 month period ending on Jan. 31.

Click here to read the entire article