

NEWS BRIEFS

Fairmont, Fragrance Du Bois, Carolina Herrera and Omega – Live news

April 28, 2016

Carolina Herrera resort 2016

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from April 27:

Fairmont commits to Middle Eastern growth with new properties

Fairmont Hotels & Resorts is expanding its portfolio with two new property developments in Morocco and Saudi Arabia, both scheduled to open before 2020.

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Click here to read the entire article

Fragrance Du Bois teaches next-generation sustainable perfuming practices

French perfume house Fragrance Du Bois shared its knowledge of oud, the world's most expensive and coveted essential oil, with students from Raffles College in Sydney, Australia.

Click here to read the entire article

Carolina Herrera honored for 35 years of fashion contributions

Designer Carolina Herrera is racking up awards for her outstanding contributions to fashion, culture and design throughout the course of her life and career.

Click here to read the entire article

Canali, Andrea Pompilio mutually opt not to renew contract

The list of labels playing musical creative directors now includes Italian menswear brand Canali.

Click here to read the entire article

Omega starts the clock for 2016 Summer Olympic Games

Swiss watchmaker Omega is counting down the 100 days left before the opening of the 2016 Summer Olympic Games in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil with a guest spot on NBC's the Today Show.

Click here to read the entire article

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.