

NEWS BRIEFS

Ferragamo, Starwood, British Vogue and Tod's – Live news

May 6, 2016

Handbags from the Sara Battaglia for Salvatore Ferragamo capsule

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from May 5:

Ferragamo repurposes iconic Rainbow Wedge for leather goods range

Italian fashion house Salvatore Ferragamo is using leather goods rather than footwear to celebrate its founder's colorful life.

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Click here to read the entire article

Starwood boasts positive Q1 results despite acquisition battles

Starwood Hotels & Resorts has posted strong financial results for the first quarter of 2016 after its very public bidding war with Marriott International.

Click here to read the entire

Fashion pays tribute to British Vogue with UK-wide window displays

Cond Nast-owned British Vogue is continuing its centenary celebration with displays placed in the windows of high street brands throughout the United Kingdom.

Click here to read entire article

Fancy blue diamond demand up 4.8pc from year-ago period

The price of blue diamonds increased by 1.7 percent in the first quarter of 2016, according to a new report by the Fancy Color Research Foundation.

Click here to read the entire article

Tod's joins growing list of houses sans creative director

Italian leather goods brand Tod's has announced that its creative director Alessandra Facchinetti will step down from her position.

Click here to read the entire article

Ferragamo confirms interest in Furla's departing CEO

Italy's Salvatore Ferragamo has confirmed upcoming talks with Eraldo Poletto, who will soon vacate his CEO position at leather goods brand Furla.

Click here to read the entire article

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.