

NEWS BRIEFS

Selfridges, Frederique Constant, Johnnie Walker and Chanel – Live news

May 31, 2016

Selfridges social media image

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from May 27:

Selfridges' CSR efforts recognized by retail peers for inaugural award

British retailer Selfridges has been awarded with the Intercontinental Group of Department Stores' inaugural sustainability award for its innovative approach to corporate social responsibility.

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Click here to read the entire article

Swiss-made Frederique Constant purchased by Citizen Watch

Swiss watchmaker Frederique Constant has been acquired by Japan's Citizen Watch Co. for an undisclosed sum.

Click here to read the entire article

Johnnie Walker brings airport retail concept to Europe

Scotch whisky-maker Johnnie Walker has opened the first European location of Johnnie Walker House, a network of airport and standalone lounges.

Click here to read the entire article

Chanel, Kiera Knightley get into character for second Beauty Talks

French atelier Chanel sat down with brand ambassador Keira Knightley for the second installment of its Beauty Talks series, transforming the actress into a "modern vamp."

Click here to read the entire article

Roche Bobois commissions street art for charity

French home furnishings maker Roche Bobois is demonstrating how street art and interior design can work together in a Brussels exhibition.

Click here to read the entire article

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.