

NEWS BRIEFS

Comit Colbert, Cunard, Mercedes and soccer – Live news

June 13, 2016

Yoox Soccer Couture t-shirts by Peter Pilotto

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from June 10:

Mercedes-Benz boasts top dealer service satisfaction among premium automakers

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

A dealership's service department can make or break consumer loyalty and satisfaction, according to a new report from J.D. Power.

Click here to read the entire article

Luxury gets into the game with UEFA Euro 2016 efforts

With the UEFA European Championship kicking off June 10, a number of luxury labels showed their excitement for the soccer tournament.

Click here to read the entire article

Cunard pairs with Aspinal of London on co-branded collection

Cruise line Cunard's refurbished Queen Mary 2 is getting a new on-board retail experience courtesy of a partnership with leather goods maker Aspinal of London.

Click here to read the entire article

Comit Colbert chooses Herms exec as chairman

Guillaume de Seynes, executive vice president of Herms, has been elected chairman of Comit Colbert.

Click here to read the entire article
