

NEWS BRIEFS

Brexit, Sotheby's, luxury cars and real estate – News briefs

July 1, 2016

Sotheby's Lasedi La Rona diamond

By STAFF REPORTS

Today in luxury marketing:

After Brexit, which way for fashion?

The impact of Brexit on the fashion industry is daunting, brain-scrambling and multi-leveled, says the Financial Times.

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Click here to read the entire article on the Financial Times

A real rock of a diamond fails to sell at auction

A 1,109-carat uncut diamond offered in an unusual public auction is still waiting for a buyer, according to The New York Times.

Click here to read the entire article on The New York Times

Millennials don't drive? Luxury automakers beg to differ

Pundits and auto analysts once pointed their fingers at millennials for the impending death of the automobile.

Click here to read the entire article on ABC News

Singapore bank halts lending for London properties over Brexit vote

Singapore's third-biggest lender has suspended new loans for the purchase of London properties as the aftershocks of Britain's vote to leave the EU are felt around the world.

Click here to read the entire article on The Guardian