

NEWS BRIEFS

DVF, Tag Heuer, Cartier and Cond Nast Britain – Live news

August 12, 2016

DVF fall/winter 2016

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from Aug. 11:

DVF matches customer donations to combat homelessness

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

U.S. fashion label Diane von Furstenberg is going dollar-for-dollar with philanthropic consumers to fight against homelessness among women.

Click here to read the entire article

Tag Heuer unveils retail updates in thriving Australian market

LVMH-owned watchmaker Tag Heuer is bringing its newly imagined retail concept to consumers down under after the redesign of its Sydney flagship.

Click here to read the entire article

Cartier fortifies support of female entrepreneurs with \$100K grant

As it celebrates its tenth anniversary, the Cartier Women's Initiative has increased the winners' award by $80,000 to further fund businesses led by women.

Click here to read the entire article

Cond Nast luxury titles resilient, buoyant in changing print realm

Media conglomerate Cond Nast's print and digital sales have been propelled by its luxury titles such as Tatler and Vogue during the first half of 2016.

Click here to read the entire article

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.