

NEWS BRIEFS

Nordstrom, Vivienne Westwood, Ritz-Carlton and Tesla – Live news

August 15, 2016

Vivienne Westwood autumn/winter 2016 campaign image

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from Aug. 12:

Tesla opens first flagship store in San Francisco

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

U.S. electric automaker Tesla Motors is establishing a retail presence in San Francisco with its largest flagship store in North America to-date.

Click here to read the entire article

Nordstrom Q2 earnings beat expectations, bolstered by Anniversary Sale

Department store chain Nordstrom's efforts to better align inventory with sales and watch expenses helped it beat projections for the second quarter of 2016.

Click here to read the entire article

Ritz-Carlton Dallas promotes restful night with sleep-inducing services

The Ritz-Carlton, Dallas is making guests' sleep quality its top priority with a new room package.

Click here to read the entire article

Vivienne Westwood unites men's and women's collections under one label

British apparel label Vivienne Westwood has become the latest brand to break from the traditional fashion week schedule.

Click here to read the entire article