

NEWS BRIEFS

Harrods, Land Rover, Bottega Veneta and Loewe – Live news

September 30, 2016

Loewe's spring/summer campaign by Steven Meisel

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from Sept. 29:

Harrods to host wellness, fashion events geared toward men

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

British retailer Harrods is offering wardrobe, workout and gadget inspiration to its male consumers throughout the month of October.

Click here to read the entire article

Graff CEO retires, rumored to purchase Marina B.

The CEO of Graff Diamonds North America has retired after nearly two decades with the British jeweler.

Click here to read the entire article

Land Rover unveils latest Discovery alongside a new Guinness World Record

British automaker Land Rover revealed the capabilities of its new Discovery model on top of a Guinness World Record-breaking Lego structure in the United Kingdom.

Click here to read the entire article

Bottega Veneta appoints Claus-Dietrich Lahrs as CEO

Kering Group has announced the departure of Italian fashion house Bottega Veneta's CEO, who will move internally within the French luxury conglomerate's corporate structure.

Click here to read the entire article

Loewe previews upcoming collection via out of home placement

Spanish leather goods and apparel house Loewe is spurring awareness for its spring/summer 2017 collection on the streets of Paris.

Click here to read the entire article

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.