

NEWS BRIEFS

Karl Lagerfeld, Yoox Net-A-Porter, Herms and Jean Paul Gaultier – Live news

October 18, 2016

Karl Lagerfeld

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news updates from Oct. 17:

Karl Lagerfeld enters licensing agreement for branded hospitality network

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Fashion designer Karl Lagerfeld is expanding his namesake brand's international reach by developing a hospitality division.

Click here to read the entire article

Yoox Net-A-Porter invests in technological foundation via innovative workspace

Online retailer Yoox Net-A-Porter Group will break ground in London to accommodate its growing business' commitment to innovation and collaboration across teams.

Click here to read the entire article

Herms heads to Nordstrom for first accessory shop-in-shop

Department store chain Nordstrom is teaming with French leather goods maker Herms for a shop-in-shop promoting the brand's silks and jewelry.

Click here to read the entire article

Jean Paul Gaultier goes on Latin American Snapchat trek

French fashion label Jean Paul Gaultier is taking its enthusiasts on a tour of Latin America through a Snapchat activation.

Click here to read the entire article

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.