

NEWS BRIEFS

Hugo Boss, Estée Lauder, Rosewood Hotel London and Safilo – Live news

November 3, 2016

Safilo prototypes created using a 3D printer

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from Nov. 2:

Hugo Boss sales decline led by Europe, US markets

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: just released
State of Luxury 2018 Save $246 ▶

German fashion label Hugo Boss is reconfirming its financial outlook for the 2016 fiscal year after the group's sales declined by 2 percent in the first nine months of the period.

Click here to read the entire article

Estée Lauder sales boosted by Tom Ford lip, fragrance lines

Beauty conglomerate Estée Lauder Cos. has reported net sales of $2.87 billion for its first quarter of fiscal 2017 ending Sept. 30.

Click here to read the entire article

Rosewood London goes on festive drive to grant holiday wishes

Rosewood Hotel Group is spreading holiday cheer on the streets of London in a specially designed red Mini Cooper convertible.

Click here to read the entire article

Furla fine-tunes art advocacy mission with newly inked partnership

Italian accessories brand Furla is beginning an ambitious new project to carry on the mission of Fondazione Furla to support and promote contemporary culture.

Click here to read the entire article

Safilo's competitive edge bolstered by 3D-printed prototypes

Italy's Safilo is embracing 3D printing technologies to produce the prototypes of its eyewear frames in record time.

Click here to read the entire article

© Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.