

NEWS BRIEFS

La Mer, Cadillac, Moschino and DFS – Live news

January 6, 2017

Image from Moschino's spring/summer 2017 ad campaign

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from Jan. 5:

DFS unveils experiential whiskey outlet in Hong Kong

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

LVMH-owned travel retailer DFS Group is creating a space for discovery and participation with the opening The Whiskey House in Hong Kong International Airport.

Click here to read the entire article

Hadid sisters strike a pose in Moschino spring campaign

Italian fashion label Moschino is leveraging the celebrity of Gigi and Bella Hadid to generate attention for its spring/summer 2017 collection.

Click here to read the entire article

Cadillac launches subscription service for commitment-averse buyers

U.S. automaker Cadillac is rolling out a monthly subscription option for car shoppers, taking car buying outside of the traditional purchase, financing or leasing model.

Click here to read the entire article

La Mer brings elements of sea to spa in Ritz-Carlton Millenia Singapore

Esté Lauder Cos.' Crème de la Mer is unveiling its first hospitality partnership in Asia with the opening of a spa at The Ritz-Carlton, Millenia Singapore.

Click here to read the entire article

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.