

NEWS BRIEFS

Vogue Italia, Harrods, Ferragamo and Chanel – Live news

January 23, 2017

Ferragamo spring/summer 2017

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from Jan. 20:

Emanuele Farneti named editor in chief of Vogue Italia, L'Uomo Vogue

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Emanuele Farneti has been selected as Vogue Italia's new editor in chief after Franca Sozzani passed away in December.

Click here to read the entire article

Will high-end children's home decor be as popular as children's apparel?

Italian fashion house Missoni's heiress is bidding for the attention of stylish parents with a capsule collection for home furniture brand Pottery Barn.

Click here to read the entire article

Harrods to let waitstaff keep 100pc of tips received

British department store Harrods has agreed to revise its gratuity policy after a Jan. 7 protest called attention to an unfair policy at the retailer's in-store restaurants.

Click here to read the entire article

Ferragamo explores Sicily's natural beauty for spring/summer 2017

Italian fashion and footwear brand Salvatore Ferragamo is "among friends" in a Mediterranean dreamscape for spring/summer 2017.

Click here to read the entire article

Chanel stages martial arts duel to pinpoint J12 favorite

French atelier Chanel is dueling it out to determine which of the J12 ceramic timepiece variation win out over the other.

Click here to read the entire article

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.