

NEWS BRIEFS

Faberg, Conde Nast, William & Son and Bentley – Live news

March 10, 2017

William & Son's Gala Jewelry Collection

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from March 9:

Four Seasons, Marriott praised as "great place to work legends" by Fortune

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

For the past 20 years, Four Seasons and Marriott International have been cornerstones of Fortune's annual 100 Best Companies to Work For in the United States rankings.

Click here to read the entire article

Faberg pays tribute to 1917's Constellation Egg in new timepiece

Russian jeweler Faberg is linking the events of 100 years ago with today through a chronograph inspired by an unfinished work.

Click here to read the entire article

Conde Nast links with like-minded media partners for ads, data solutions

Publisher Conde Nast is partnering with NBCUniversal and Vox Media to create a digital advertising platform with the capacity to reach 99 percent of millennials in the United States.

Click here to read the entire article

William & Son named National Portrait Gallery Gala sponsor

British luxury boutique department store William & Son is demonstrating its commitment to the arts through patronage of the National Portrait Gallery in London.

Click here to read the entire article

Bentley concept aims to redefine electric motoring in luxury sector

British automaker Bentley Motors is sharing with attendees of the Geneva Motor Show its ambitions to define the electric luxury automotive segment with a new concept vehicle.

Click here to read the entire article

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.