TCS World Travel's President's Journey Around the World celebrates Ms. Cline's 25-year career at the travel brand. To celebrate her career milestone, Ms. Cline has selected her favorite destinations around the world, as well as locales that she has yet to tick off her must-do list.

Limited to 52 guests, the President's Journey Around The World excursions will include cycling through the Vietnamese countryside, a visit to Rwanda's bamboo forest to see endangered mountain gorillas, a snorkeling experience alongside sea turtles in the Galapagos Islands, kayaking in the Maldives, exploring a 1,200-year-old Buddhist temple in Kyoto, Japan and learning to samba dance in Brazil, to name a few.

TCS' guests will travel the world on board the brand's custom Boeing 757. The nearly month-long trip, taking flight Jan. 19 to Feb. 10, 2018 is priced at $108,950 per person for double occupancy.

The trip is all-inclusive and features flights by private jet and staff, including an onboard chef and physician. Luxury accommodations, ground transportation, dining and exclusive sightseeing options such as special events, activities and enrichment program are also included.

“Designed to create a lifetime of moments in a single trip, this journey is a celebration of key learnings and experiences,” said Ms. Cline in a TCS World Travel statement. “I look forward to exploring with our guests and enjoying unique immersive experiences.

“President's Journey Around the World is much more than simply traveling from one destination to the next – it's about those transformative moments that emerge along the way, giving us a greater understanding of the world around us and how we all connected,” she said.

As president of TCS World Travel Ms. Cline has grown the tour operator's business and maintained its position as a leader among private jet tour services. Ms. Cline was instrumental in the development of key partnerships such as TCS World Travel's collaborations with National Geographic and Four Seasons Hotels & Resorts (see story).
