

NEWS BRIEFS

Baccarat, Switzerland, Louis Vuitton, Printemps, McLaren and St. Regis – Live news

June 5, 2017

Knight Frank listing in Anires, Geneva

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from June 2:

St. Regis gathers tastemakers for one-off experiences

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

St. Regis Hotels & Resorts is responding to consumers' desire for personalization with the assistance of a handful of tastemakers.

Click here to read the entire article

McLaren promotes Rob Melville to design director

As British automaker McLaren's design director Frank Stephenson steps down, the company is hiring from within to fill the role.

Click here to read the entire article

Printemps highlights skin deep beauty in stripped-down windows

French department store chain Printemps is highlighting seasonal beauty trends in window displays that opt for a less-is-more approach.

Click here to read the entire article

Louis Vuitton serves up savoir-faire in custom cases

French leather goods house Louis Vuitton is showcasing its made-to-order capabilities with a pair of trophy trunks for the Roland-Garros French Open.

Click here to read the entire article

Fortune Fountain Capital acquires majority stake in Baccarat

Chinese financial group Fortune Fountain Capital has offered to buy 88.8 percent of Baccarat's shares from affiliates of Starwood Capital Group and L Catterton.

Click here to read the entire article

Affluents look to Switzerland for more than just tax relief: Knight Frank

Switzerland is becoming an asylum for wealthy consumers looking for not just financial security, but personal safety as well.

Click here to read the entire article

---

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.