

NEWS BRIEFS

Giorgio Armani, Luxury Living Group, Macau and the fashion conundrum – News briefs

October 24, 2017

Giorgio Armani at Armani/Casa in Miami. Image credit: Armani

By STAFF REPORTS

Please be aware the clippings below may require a paid subscription to the listed media outlet to read an article in full.

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Today in luxury:

Giorgio Armani: We'll grow together, et's talk about the future

It's not secret that Giorgio Armani has always shied away from broaching the subject of his succession, as he himself will readily admit. And yet, it is precisely this topic that has kept him busy for the past few years and still engages him today on a mental, emotional and practical level, reports Corriere.

Click here to read the entire article on Corriere

Luxury Living Group opens flagship in Miami

Luxury Living Group has extended its presence in the U.S. market by opening a new directly managed store in Miami's Design District, says WWD.

Click here to read the entire article on WWD

13 Holdings to raise \$223M for ultra-luxury Macau hotel

13 Holdings Ltd., the owner of a planned luxury hotel in Macau that will chauffeur guests in Rolls-Royces, intends to raise HK$1.74 billion ($223 million) through a combination of rights issue and debt to complete the project, according to Bloomberg.

Click here to read the entire article on Bloomberg

Global and local: The fashion conundrum

Since the fall collections and my usual travel hopping - most recently from Belgium to Lisbon to Marrakesh - I have been pondering the fashion conundrum. How can a designer be both local and global? The big brands' concept of presenting identical shop windows in each city has faded slightly, says Suzy Menkes for British Vogue.

Click here to read the entire article on British Vogue

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.