

NEWS BRIEFS

Tiffany, Lanvin, Louis Vuitton, Anya Hindmarch and Shiseido – Live news

November 8, 2017

Tiffany Everyday Objects Home & Accessories collection. Image credit: Tiffany & Co.

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from Nov. 7:

Tiffany expands New York footprint to refresh retail environment

U.S. jeweler Tiffany & Co. plans to open two pop-up shops in close proximity to its Fifth Avenue flagship ahead of the holiday gifting season.

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Click here to read the entire article

Lanvin facing hard times as sales decline, flagship sold

French atelier Lanvin's financial struggles continue, after a French commercial court audit filed a warning over the brand's declining sales.

Click here to read the entire article

Louis Vuitton travels globe in fashion photography book series

French leather goods brand Louis Vuitton is putting a fashionable twist to its travel-themed efforts.

Click here to read the entire article

Anya Hindmarch encapsulates fond memories in debut candle line

British accessories maker Anya Hindmarch is diversifying its leather goods offerings with the introduction of a fragrant candle collection.

Click here to read the entire article

Shiseido aims to reinvent beauty business model via technology

Cosmetics and personal care group Shiseido Americas is investing in its sector's future use of artificial intelligence through a technology firm acquisition.

Click here to read the entire article

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.