

NEWS BRIEFS

Barneys, Gucci, Galeries Lafayette, Hublot and Dream Cruises – Live news

December 20, 2017

Gucci's spring/summer 2018 campaign is a collaboration with Ignasi Monreal. Image courtesy of Gucci

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from Dec. 19:

Barneys plans Bal Harbour Shops opening for 2023

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Department store chain Barneys New York is opening its first store in Florida.

Click here to read the entire article

Galeries Lafayette preps for global expansion via executive restructuring

French department store chain Galeries Lafayette Group is shuffling its senior management team to simplify the organization and support necessary for a number of strategic projects currently underway.

Click here to read the entire article

Hublot teams with Eli Manning to debut Giants-inspired watch

Swiss watchmaker Hublot is extending its relationship with the New York Giants by partnering with the football team's captain Eli Manning.

Click here to read the entire article

Gucci's spring campaign paints surreal "Utopian Fantasy"

Italian fashion house Gucci is flaunting its latest designs through fantastical art.

Click here to read the entire article

Tiffany, Dior set sail with Dream Cruises

Genting's Dream Cruises is building a luxury travel retail concept aboard its new World Dream ship that focuses on experience and entertainment.

Click here to read the entire article

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.