

The News and Intelligence You Need on Luxury

NEWS BRIEFS

Seabourn, Neiman Marcus, Madison Avenue, Vogue, Gemfields and @Diet_Prada - Live news

January 8, 2018

Vogue x Dirty Lemon will be available starting Jan. 8 for a limited time. Image credit: Dirty Lemon

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from Jan. 5:

Seabourn ships out innovation, wellness for milestone year

Carnival's luxury cruise line Seabourn is marking its three-decades-long career on the seas with a plan to revolutionize high-end cruising again, as it once did before.

Subscribe to Luxury DailyPlus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019
Save $246

Click here to read the entire article

Karen Katz to retire from Neiman Marcus

After 30 years at retailer Neiman Marcus Group, Karen Katz has announced her retirement as president and CEO, but will remain on the board of directors.

Click here to read the entire article

Madison Avenue sees new openings, reinvestment in H2 2017

Ghurka and Stella McCartney are among the new brands to call Madison Avenue in New York home with store openings during the second half of 2017.

Click here to read the entire article

Vogue drinks to readers' health with subscription offer

Cond Nast-owned Vogue magazine is helping readers with their "new year, new you" efforts by partnering with a health beverage.

Click here to read the entire article

Gemfields tells emerald's story via undetectable transparency inscription

Colored-gemstone miner Gemfields has unveiled a laser-inscribed emerald as part of its overarching transparency approach to sourcing precious stones.

Click here to read the entire article

Stefano Gabbana fires back at "cyberbully" @Diet_Prada

One half of Italian fashion house Dolce & Gabbana, Stefano Gabbana, has accused fashion Instagrammer @Diet_Prada of cyberbullying.

Click here to read the entire article

 $\hbox{@ 2020 Napean LLC}.$ All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.