

NEWS BRIEFS

Day's wrap: Lanvin, Suffragettes, Gucci, Porsche, Galeries Lafayette and Swarovski

February 6, 2018

Gucci's New York Art Wall for spring/summer by Ignasi Monreal. Image credit: Gucci and courtesy of Krista Lindahl for Colossal Media

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from Feb. 6:

Mr Porter, Net-A-Porter celebrate "humble letter" in Letters Live sponsorship

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

British retailers Mr Porter and Net-A-Porter are bringing the United Kingdom's Letters Live show stateside to Los Angeles Feb. 26.

Click here to read the entire article

Lanvin's financial woes dissuades potential investors

France's oldest fashion house Lanvin is reportedly in talks with possible investors as it continues to face struggling sales.

Click here to read the entire article

British retail remembers Suffragettes movement 100 years on

London department store Fortnum & Mason is among the brands recalling its own history to celebrate the centennial anniversary of British women being granted the right to vote.

Click here to read the entire article

Gucci to bring Art Wall concept to Hong Kong for spring/summer 2018

Italy's Gucci is continuing its creative relationship with Spanish artist Ignasi Monreal as the house looks to expand the footprint of its Art Walls mural series.

Click here to read the entire article

Porsche doubles investment into EV advancement

German automaker Porsche is the latest of its cohorts to announce an extensive plan for the future in which electric-powered mobility is at the forefront.

Click here to read the entire article

Galeries Lafayette streamlines business model through franchising

French department store Galeries Lafayette is increasing efficiency and agility while simultaneously maintaining its nationwide presence through a new strategy.

Click here to read the entire article

Swarovski adds touch of brilliance to app users' photos

Precision-cut crystal maker Swarovski is making every moment sparkle with help from an exclusive filter on the KiraKira+ mobile application.

Click here to read the entire article

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.