

NEWS BRIEFS

Day's wrap: Carolina Herrera, Bally, Jimmy Choo, Dior, Porter magazine and Rolls-Royce

February 9, 2018

China's Shandong Ruyi now controls a majority stake in Bally. Image credit: Bally

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from Feb. 9:

Ritz-Carlton focuses on sharable experiences with #RCMemories

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

The Ritz-Carlton Hotel Company is launching a new take on unique experiences with a global initiative to bring travelers the kinds of unique memories they will want to remember and share into the future.

Click here to read the entire article

Carolina Herrera to present final runway collection Feb. 12

U.S. apparel and accessories label Carolina Herrera has announced that its upcoming New York Fashion Week presentation will be the last designed by its namesake designer.

Click here to read the entire article

JAB Holding Co. to retain minority stake in Bally

JAB Holding Co. has sold its controlling stake in Swiss apparel and accessories label Bally to one of China's largest textile manufacturers.

Click here to read the entire article

Jimmy Choo recruits new marketing SVP from Net-A-Porter

Michael Kors' Jimmy Choo is valuing editorial content over traditional advertising with its new hire from Net-A-Porter.

Click here to read the entire article

Dior opens first boutique exclusive to eyewear

French atelier Christian Dior has opened a new space on Paris' Avenue Montaigne dedicated to its eyewear collections.

Click here to read the entire article

Porter magazine hones in on content in digital expansion

Ecommerce retailer Net-A-Porter's Porter magazine will now publish seven days a week, 365 days a year via a digital hub.

Click here to read the entire article

Rolls-Royce hires from BMW Group for engineering lead

British automaker Rolls-Royce has appointed a new director of engineering.

Click here to read the entire article

Shiseido profitability suffered despite unprecedented sales growth

Japanese beauty manufacturer Shiseido reached a milestone sales record for 2017, hitting 1 trillion yen in net sales, or $9 billion at current exchange, but its profitability suffered.

Click here to read the entire article

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.