Luxury has gotten jumbled, but not at Bottega Veneta

On East 60th Street the other afternoon, just across the street from where that small and charmingly dignified Italian haberdashery used to be (R.I.P.), a black Sprinter van pulled up and parked. As the door slid open, out poured a primo foursome: a Blackbear look-alike in pink Chanel sneakers and distressed pink logo hat, his buddy in Yeezy 750 Wave Runners, a female friend in white leopard tights and statement purse and someone trailing them all, filming, per The New York Times.
