Why the Swiss luxury watch industry is dismantling business operations in America

After over a decade covering the Swiss luxury watch industry I can say one thing for sure, Americans and Swiss in this industry will never see eye to eye on most things. A perpetually contentious relationship between those who are responsible for producing most of the world's fine timepieces and the market most responsible for selling them has advanced to a state where one by one, fewer and fewer Americans are actually working in the American luxury watch sales industry – an industry that by most accords is necessarily shrinking and ideally regrouping its efforts, according to Forbes.
