

HOME FURNISHINGS

Yves Delorme gives bedding couture treatment with Adam Lippes

March 13, 2018

Yves Delorme has teamed with Adam Lippes on a bedding collection. Image courtesy of Yves Delorme

By STAFF REPORTS

French linen maker Yves Delorme is linking with designer Adam Lippes to launch a collection that draws on its customization capabilities.

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

The New York-based designer used options available within Yves Delorme's Couture program and fabrics from his spring/summer 2018 collection to add his own aesthetic to the bedding. This collaboration enables Yves Delorme to showcase the possibilities of its made to measure linens.

"Adam Lippes has a sort of je ne sais quoi in his approach to elegance in design, both in fashion and interiors that is absolutely authentic and enthralling," said Lee Dufour, vice president of marketing and communications at Yves Delorme, Inc. , in a statement. "Adam is a very passionate designer and his work is a beautiful compliment to the Yves Delorme brand, and to Yves Delorme Couture.

"It was such a delight to witness the collaboration between Jrme Delmas, Yves Delorme Couture art director and Adam Lippes two great minds working in the domain of refinement and the perfection of artistic expression by textiles."

Custom creations

Within the U.S., Yves Delorme's in-store Couture program is available exclusively at its Madison Avenue flagship in New York. Offering a made-to-measure experience, clients can pick everything from the materials and threads to measurements to create something that is uniquely their own.

Similarly to the Couture program, the Adam Lippes collection will also be sold exclusively at Yves Delorme's New York location through special order. The collaborative collection features styles that reference Mr. Lippes' Americana meets Japanese collection for spring.

"Most of my inspiration for our collections stems from interiors," Mr. Lippes said in a statement. "The mix, the layering, the coloring and pattern.

"You will see this weave throughout Adam Lippes. And in my work, nothing is more important than the fabric, fit and finish," he said. "With Yves Delorme, I found a partner who values the same. Their extraordinary attention to quality and ability to execute genius craftsmanship is second to none.

"Personally, I can't wait to dream in the bed we've created together."

Adam Lippes' collection for Yves Delorme will be on view at the Madison store through the month of March.

Yves Delorme's Madison Avenue store is featuring the collection. Image courtesy of Yves Delorme

Home furnishings labels have frequently worked with the fashion community to bring a different design point of view to the table.

Italian fashion label Moschino took its edgy aesthetic into the home furnishings category with oversized recreations of its products.

For its limited-edition furniture capsule, Moschino creative director Jeremy Scott teamed with Italian home furnishings house Gufam. The Moschino x Gufam collection launched April 4 during the annual design show Salone del Mobile in Milan (see story).

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.