

NEWS BRIEFS

Dubai Mall, duty-free retail, North Korea and Tesla – News briefs

March 15, 2018

The Dubai Mall is expanding. Image credit: The Dubai Mall

By STAFF REPORTS

Please be aware the clippings below may require a paid subscription to the listed media outlet to read an article in full.

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Today in luxury:

With the luxury landscape changing, Emaar makes bold bet on Dubai Mall expansion

In Dubai, a city synonymous with luxury and flashy displays of wealth, standing out at the very top of the market is no easy task, says Gulf News.

Click here to read the entire article on Gulf News

Is this the start of better airport shopping in the US?

Here's a little secret about airport shopping: You don't have to hold an international ticket anymore to buy at many duty-free shops. And another: It actually can be a pretty good deal, according to the Wall Street Journal.

Click here to read the entire article on the Wall Street Journal

Singapore investigating firms accused of selling luxury goods to North Korea

Singapore said on Wednesday it was investigating two local companies accused of supplying luxury goods to North Korea in violation of U.N. sanctions, reports Reuters.

Click here to read the entire article on Reuters

Tesla's executive churn toughens test of Musk's management chops

Tesla Inc. has always been an intoxicating place to work: an adrenaline-fueled, mission-driven boot camp. Some top executives have departed only to return to the unique drama that is working for Elon Musk, per Bloomberg.

Click here to read the entire article on Bloomberg

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.