Balenciaga to open store on Milan's Via Montenapoleone

Milan's tony shopping street Via Montenapoleone is gaining another luxury brand banner. Balenciaga is expected to open a boutique in the latter part of the year on the prestigious street, home to the likes of Gucci, Prada, Fendi, Cline, Brunello Cucinelli and Ermenegildo Zegna, to name a few, says Women's Wear Daily.

Tailoring the Mercedes-Benz G-Class to the modern age

The Mercedes-Benz G-Class turns 40 next year, an elder statesman in a sea of newcomers like the Maserati Levante and Lamborghini Urus. But the German brand is not content to let its iconic SUV grow old gracefully, equipping it instead with a new, more powerful drivetrain and a cabin rife with modern luxuries, according to Forbes.
