Meet Davide Cerrato, the man bringing style to Montblanc's watchmaking

When Jérôme Lambert took over as CEO at Montblanc in 2013, fresh from Jaeger-LeCoultre, it was a watch brand with a dozen or more collections. Ranging from mother-of-pearl dialed quartz timepieces to off-the-wall, tear drop-cased tourbillon wonders, it was impossible to pin down quite who Montblanc was, says The Telegraph.

How much is that luxury home? It's a secret

Real-estate developer Arnon Katz was searching for the mechanical system above his Manhattan penthouse when he discovered a huge, underused attic overhead. Four years later, with architectural plans in hand, he is marketing the space as a 10,000-square-foot triplex atop Hampshire House, located on Central Park South, per the Wall Street Journal.
