

NEWS BRIEFS

Day's wrap: Berluti, Cond Nast, Louis Vuitton, Galeries Lafayette, Marc Jacobs and VistaJet

April 3, 2018

Berluti is getting a new creative director. Image credit: Berluti

By STAFF REPORTS

Register now: Women in Luxury conference New York, May 9

Luxury Daily's live news from April 3:

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Marc Jacobs heads to the beach to debut Daisy Love

U.S. fashion label Marc Jacobs is focusing on female friendship in a sunny effort for its latest scent.

Click here to read the entire article

Galeries Lafayette hires creative, merchandising director for future flagship

French department store chain Galeries Lafayette has appointed Clara Cornet to oversee the visual identity and merchandise selection at its upcoming Champs-Elyses location in Paris.

Click here to read the entire article

Louis Vuitton adds tracking tech to luggage line

French fashion house Louis Vuitton is giving consumers peace of mind as they travel the globe with the launch of a luggage tracker.

Click here to read the entire article

Is Anna Wintour leaving Cond Nast?

Anna Wintour, the editor of Vogue and artistic director of Cond Nast, is rumored to be exiting the company.

Click here to read the entire article

Kris Van Assche named artistic director of Berluti

French menswear house Berluti has appointed designer Kris Van Assche its new artistic director.

Click here to read the entire article

VistaJet looks to art, business ventures to woo Asian travelers

Private aviation firm VistaJet is investing further into the Asian market with special art and business initiatives.

Click here to read the entire article

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.