

NEWS BRIEFS

Day's wrap: GQ, Lane Crawford, LVMH, Crystal Cruises, Galeries Lafayette and Burberry

April 9, 2018

Collaborations across industries can create unique and fresh ideas. Image credit: LVMH

By STAFF REPORTS

Register now: Women in Luxury conference New York, May 9

Luxury Daily's live news from April 9:

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

GQ's growth expands to the Middle East

As menswear sees significant growth all over the world, Cond Nast is supporting a worldwide presence for GQ with a version in the Middle East.

Click here to read the entire story

Lane Crawford travels to Australia to find emerging talent

Chinese department store chain Lane Crawford is looking to the Australian fashion community to find the next innovative creative individuals and brands.

Click here to read the entire story

LVMH starts the year off strong

LVMH Mot Hennessy Louis Vuitton is reporting a 10 percent year-over-year growth for the first quarter of 2018, as it continues to reshuffle its management.

Click here to read the entire story

Crystal Cruises turns dining into one-of-a-kind experience

Crystal Cruises is capitalizing on the popularity of experiential travel with a special culinary immersion program at sea.

Click here to read the entire story

Galeries Lafayette looks to logistics expertise with new hire

Department store chain Galeries Lafayette has created a new position within its business to better facilitate omnichannel growth.

Click here to read the entire story

Burberry takes to the coast for scenic fragrance campaign

British fashion house Burberry is taking customers to the scenic Kent Coast of England in a new campaign for its Mr. Burberry fragrance.

Click here to read the entire story

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.