

NEWS BRIEFS

Balenciaga, Prada, Baume & Mercier, Lalique, Dubai Mall and Audi – Live news

April 27, 2018

Prada spring/summer 2017 campaign image. Image credit: Prada

By STAFF REPORTS

42 speakers from the world's leading luxury brands Women in Luxury New York 2018

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Luxury Daily's live news from April 26:

Lalique plans listing on SIX Swiss stock exchange

Following positive financial results for 2017, France's Lalique Group is seeking a capital increase.

Click here to read the entire article

PETA targets Prada over use of animal skins

People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals is planning to raise attention for its platform at Italian fashion group Prada's shareholders meeting on April 27.

Click here to read the entire article

Baume & Mercier hires CEO from Jaeger-LeCoultre

Swiss watchmaker Baume & Mercier has appointed Geoffroy Lefebvre as its CEO.

Click here to read the entire article

Balenciaga responds to accusations of racial discrimination

Consumers are threatening to boycott French fashion label Balenciaga after an incident of reported racism at a Paris department store went viral.

Click here to read the entire article

Dubai Mall adopts Alipay as inbound Chinese tourism grows

The Dubai Mall is making it easier for Chinese tourists to spend at its property with the acceptance of mobile payment platform Alipay.

Click here to read the entire article

Audi triggers nostalgic feelings, as autonomy takes over the future

German automaker Audi is taking a cinematic approach to reignite consumers' love of driving, as new technologies begin to take over the automotive field.

Click here to read the entire article

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.