

NEWS BRIEFS

Audi, Jumeirah, Holt Renfrew, TCS, Berluti and Royal Caribbean – Live news

June 19, 2018

Audi's Q5. Image credit: Audi

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from June 18:

Audi CEO arrested for evidence tampering

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

German automaker Audi is under fire for emissions cheating, after its CEO has been arrested.

Click here to read the entire story

Jumeirah heightens luxury restaurant offerings with new position

Jumeirah Hotels & Resorts is looking to refresh and reinvigorate its restaurant capabilities with a new chief culinary officer.

Click here to read the entire story

Holt Renfrew invests in renovations to cater to modern retail

Department store chain Holt Renfrew is aiming to build the world's leading collection of luxury apparel and beauty brands with an increased investment.

Click here to read the entire story

TCS parts ways with National Geographic Expeditions

Private jet tour operator TCS World Travel is severing its partnership with National Geographic to focus on its luxury and bespoke options.

Click here to read the entire story

Berluti releases first campaign under new creative direction

French menswear house Berluti is unveiling a new positioning that takes the brand back to its roots.

Click here to read the entire story

Royal Caribbean's acquisition of Silversea Cruises signals luxury shift

Cruise line Royal Caribbean has made a significant investment into the luxury travel market by acquiring a majority stake in Silversea Cruises, a smaller but more upscale brand.

Click here to read the entire story

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.