

NEWS BRIEFS

Dior, 1MDB raids, Aston Martin and high-tech homes – News briefs

June 29, 2018

Dior Homme spring/summer 2019 runway show. Image credit: Dior

By STAFF REPORTS

Please be aware the clippings below may require a paid subscription to the listed media outlet to read an article in full.

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Today in luxury:

The greatest show\(men\) on earth: How Dior and Vuitton went head to head in a catwalk spectacle like never before

Among the ceremony and splendor of Paris's Palais Royal, olive trees daintily bristling in the warm June breeze, blood-curdling screams are ringing out across the courtyards and cloisters, as if the revolutionaries had come for those pampered, pompadoured heads once more, according to the Telegraph.

Click here to read the entire article on the Telegraph

Malaysia police value assets seized in 1MDB-linked raids at \$275M

A vast haul of designer handbags, jewelry and watches seized from premises linked to former prime minister Najib Razak is worth almost $275 million, Malaysia's police said on June 27, as a probe into allegations of corruption at state investment fund 1Malaysia Development Berhad intensifies, reports the Financial Times.

Click here to read the entire article on the Financial Times

Aston Martin still weighing London IPO, CEO says

Aston Martin hasn't yet decided on an initial public offering in London, and a listing in New York or sale of stock to a private investor remain under consideration, the luxury carmaker's chief executive officer said, per Bloomberg.

Click here to read the entire article on Bloomberg

Quieting the high-tech luxury home

Forget drowning out the neighbors. Homeowners today are battling a different kind of noise: the cacophony of pings and dings coming from all the gadgets inside their homes, says the Wall Street Journal.

Click here to read the entire article on the Wall Street Journal

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.