The One More Night package is the hospitality group's offering that gives guests tours of Shanghai's art scene, architecture, Asian quarters and other cultural important sites. The property's package also offers a complimentary third night and access to Club Lounge benefits.

Cultural deep-dive

Guests can travel through Shanghai's art scene via sidecar, visiting contemporary galleries catered to their preferences, including a complimentary bottle of Champagne. The tour costs CNY 2,400, or $361 at current exchange, per person.

Another, three-hour tour offers a guided experience with award-winning Shanghai photographer Gangfeng Wang through historic Shanghai. The tour is a look into local life, for CNY 1200, or $180 at current exchange, per person.

A cycling tour will give guests a look at the French Concession in Shanghai that ends with a visit to the hotel's spa. The tour is priced at CNY 2,800, or $421 all together.

The One More Night package is available for CNY 2,400, or $361, per room per night and is available from June 1 to Sept. 8, 2018.

Affluent consumers are united in a shared affinity for travel as experiences become more important than things.

A new report from YouGov finds that while consumers' preferred hobbies vary in different regions of the globe, travel comes out on top for all parts of the world. However, while travel is top-of-mind for affluent travelers, YouGov warns that the affluent are beginning to express feelings of travel fatigue, calling for brands to keep their offerings fresh (see story).
