

NEWS BRIEFS

Day's wrap: Mandarin Oriental, Walpole, Vivienne Westwood, Mercedes, Marcolin and Slingshot

July 6, 2018

Art Ride by Shanghai Insiders. Image credit: Mandarin Oriental Pudong, Shanghai

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from July 6:

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Mandarin Oriental offers one more night for cultural enthusiasts

Mandarin Oriental Pudong, Shanghai is expanding on its cultural offerings with new tours and a complimentary package.

Click here to read the entire story

Walpole hopes for pro-business Brexit to save luxury brands

British luxury alliance Walpole has made a statement urging the U.K. government to protect jobs in the nation post Brexit.

Click here to read the entire story

Vivienne Westwood works with Burberry in future collaboration

British apparel labels Vivienne Westwood and Burberry are entering a partnership that emphasizes their heritage, but surprises some with its contrasting style.

Click here to read the entire story

Mercedes sees record-breaking H1 of 2018

German automaker Mercedes-Benz is celebrating a major milestone for its company, as it hit 1.18 million cars sold in the first half of the year.

Click here to read the entire story

Marcolin extends licensing agreement with Tod's

Eyewear group Marcolin is investing further in its relationship with Italian label Tod's to manufacture its sunglass and optical line.

Click here to read the entire story

How Slingshot caters to the affluent market with recreational vehicles

As affluent consumers look for more experiences rather than luxury goods, recreational vehicles offer a unique position, straddling the two.

Click here to read the entire story

Click here to read the morning newsletter

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.