

NEWS BRIEFS

Burberry, LVMH, NRF, Dubuc Motors, Watchbox and Delvaux – Live news

July 12, 2018

Burberry's exploration in new markets has led to success. Image credit: Burberry

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from July 11:

Click here to read the morning newsletter

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Burberry's Q1 growth was driven by digital, Asia and drops

British fashion house Burberry saw growth in the first quarter of this year supported by an improved retail performance and increased sales around the world.

Click here to read the entire article

LVMH signs 5-year digital deal with AT&T

French group LVMH has signed a five-year deal with ISP AT&T to create cutting edge technology for luxury retail.

Click here to read the entire article

National Retail Federation condemns Trump's tariffs on China

The National Retail Federation has hit back strongly at President Donald Trump's latest tariffs on imported goods, asserting that it would be harmful for both business and consumers.

Click here to read the entire article

Dubuc Motors partners with financial firm for luxury electric car development

Dubuc Motors, a relatively new luxury auto company devoted to electric cars, just got a significant boost to its prospects thanks to a partnership with Xenergy Financial, LLC.

Click here to read the entire article

WatchBox expands to South Africa via new partnership

WatchBox, an online marketplace for luxury timepieces, is expanding into an exciting new market by partnering with South African counterpart Topwatch.

Click here to read the entire article

Delvaux celebrates British boutiques with thematic mini collection

Belgian leather goods maker Delvaux is paying homage to London with the release of a quirky capsule collection.

Click here to read the entire article

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.