The hotel's "Hampton's Getaway" package features a two-night stay in the Manhattan Mandarin Oriental, following which guests will travel to Amagansett, New York for two nights at the upscale inn. Partnerships provide opportunities for hospitality brands to expand on the experiences they can offer customers.

Out of town

Mandarin Oriental's package includes an almost two-hour massage and a three-course cocktail experience on the property's 35th floor lounge The Aviary. From this high perch, guests can view sights such as Central Park and Columbus Circle, getting a taste of the bustling city.

For a change of pace, those who book the package will then be whisked away to the Hamptons in a luxury car service.

At The Inn at Windmill Lane, they will stay in a suite or a cottage for two nights. The property is located in close proximity to Amagansett's Main Street.

Guests can also bike to the beach or explore the area's vineyards and art galleries.

The collaborative package is available for bookings through Nov. 15.

Mandarin Oriental has made other alliances in hospitality to further guest experiences.

Private aviation charter XOJet is continuing to display its commitment to service with its first global hotel partnership with Mandarin Oriental Hotel Group.

Through XOJet's partnership with Mandarin Oriental, its Preferred Access and Elite Access clients will be eligible for privileges at the hospitality brand's hotels and resorts. XOJet has worked to ensure that every aspect of a trip where its services are used is enjoyable by partnering with others in the travel and hospitality space to guarantee that no detail is overlooked (see story).
