

NEWS BRIEFS

Nordstrom, NAFTA, Balenciaga, TCS, Rolls-Royce and Ritz-Carlton – Live news

August 28, 2018

The Teen Advisory Board will help curate luxury travel itineraries for young people. Image credit: TCS World Travel

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from Aug. 27:

Balenciaga struts out new sneakers at Selfridges

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Kering-owned fashion label Balenciaga is setting up shop at Selfridges' London flagship in September.

Click here to read the entire article

Nordstrom courts Canadian consumers with multichannel campaign

Department store chain Nordstrom is looking north with a marketing campaign that caters to Canadian consumers.

Click here to read the entire article

US, Mexico reach preliminary trade agreement

The United States and Mexico have agreed to amend the North American Free Trade Agreement, coming to a preliminary agreement after more than a year of negotiations.

Click here to read the entire article

Rolls-Royce appoints new North American president

British automaker Rolls-Royce has named Martin Fritsches its new president for North America.

Click here to read the entire article

Xenia acquires Ritz-Carlton Denver for \$100M

Hospitality investment firm Xenia Hotels & Resorts, Inc. has added The Ritz-Carlton, Denver to its portfolio, scooping up the downtown property for $100.25 million.

Click here to read the entire article

TCS World Travel recruits teenagers to consult on multi-generational luxury travel

Luxury travel company TCS World Travel is giving a voice to one of the most influential segments in travel today: teenagers.

Click here to read the entire article

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.