

NEWS BRIEFS

Day's wrap: Aston Martin, Nina Ricci, St. Regis, Cartier, Pacific Union and Mercedes

August 29, 2018

Cartier watches will be sold on Net-A-Porter and Mr Porter. Image courtesy of Yoox Net-A-Porter Group

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from Aug. 29:

Pacific Union joins startup-style brokerage Compass

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Real estate firm Compass has acquired California luxury brokerage Pacific Union International, growing its presence in the West Coast.

Click here to read the entire article

Cartier becomes permanent part of Net-A-Porter, Mr Porter

Online retailers Net-A-Porter and Mr Porter are expanding their high-end timepiece through the launch of a permanent partnership with watchmaker Cartier.

Click here to read the entire article

St. Regis plans Australian debut for 2022

Hospitality brand St. Regis Hotels & Resorts is opening its first property in Australia, catering to the market's growing demand for luxury travel.

Click here to read the entire article

Aston Martin files for an IPO amid growth

British automaker Aston Martin is gearing up to take its company public on the London Stock Exchange.

Click here to read the entire article

Nina Ricci appoints design duo as creative directors

French fashion label Nina Ricci has named Rushemy Botter and Lisi Herrebrugh as its new creative directors.

Click here to read the entire article

Mercedes-Benz celebrates pioneer who drove auto industry into the future

German automaker Mercedes-Benz is honoring the woman who is considered the first driver in a new vignette that captures the marque's long legacy of innovation.

Click here to read the entire article

Click here to read the morning newsletter

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.