

NEWS BRIEFS

Kering, DVF, Vogue, Tiffany, Cunard and Snapchat – Live news

October 30, 2018

Kering's Gucci has seen significant growth in recent quarters. Image credit: Gucci

By STAFF REPORTS

Luxury Daily's live news from Oct. 29:

DFS teams with Tiffany for travel retail exclusive

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Jeweler Tiffany & Co. is taking inspiration from its hometown for a special collection being sold solely through LVMH-owned retailer DFS.

Click here to read the entire article

Vogue expands Asian footprint with Hong Kong edition

Media group Cond Nast International is bringing its Vogue brand to Hong Kong, an increasingly key market for luxury retail.

Click here to read the entire article

Kering launches share repurchase program

Luxury conglomerate Kering is looking to buy back up to 1 percent of its share capital over the next 12 months.

Click here to read the entire article

Diane von Furstenberg to deck Claridge's Christmas tree

London hotel Claridge's has tapped fashion designer Diane von Furstenberg to decorate its Christmas tree this holiday season.

Click here to read the entire article

Cunard embarks on entertainment partnership with BAFTA Los Angeles

Cruise line Cunard is furthering its ties to show business through a partnership with the British Academy of Film and Television Arts, Los Angeles.

Click here to read the entire article

Snapchat struggles to keep users despite revenue growth

Social media platform Snapchat saw a decline in daily active users for the second straight quarter, although sales grew 43 percent to $298 million.

Click here to read the entire article

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.