

NEWS BRIEFS

Day's wrap: Cond Nast, Mot Hennessy, Tiffany, Cunard, Valentino and Land Rover

November 27, 2018

W Magazine could be one of the casualties of Cond Nast's changes. Image credit: W Magazine

By STAFF REPORTS

Cond Nast merges US, International divisions, drops CEOs

Media group Cond Nast has continued to announce major changes within its organization as it attempts to navigate the new media world.

Subscribe to Luxury Daily
Plus: Just released
State of Luxury 2019 Save $246 ▶

Click here to read the entire story

Mot Hennessy brings personalization closer to New York travelers

Luxury group LVMH's spirits division is bringing customization to Grand Central Terminal for the gifting season.

Click here to read the entire story

Tiffany creates workshops within its windows

U.S. jeweler Tiffany & Co is giving customers and passersby a look inside inside its workshop with its holiday windows.

Click here to read the entire story

Cunard brings comedian onboard for special cruise

Luxury cruise line Cunard has invited comedian Keegan-Michael Key aboard one of its cruises for an intimate interaction with guests.

Click here to read the entire story

Valentino celebrates Japanese culture with concept shop

Italian fashion label Valentino is gearing up for its runway show in Tokyo by looking to other designers.

Click here to read the entire story

Land Rover appeals to city drivers with redesigned Evoque

British automaker Jaguar Land Rover is promoting its redesigned Range Rover Evoque with a tech-centric campaign aimed at urban, environmentally conscious drivers.

Click here to read the entire story

© 2020 Napean LLC. All rights reserved.

Luxury Daily is published each business day. Thank you for reading us. Your feedback is welcome.